

AI-Anon Meetings: Frequently Asked Questions

1. Where do I find online AI-Anon meetings?

Go to the AI-Anon Family Groups Australia website. On the home page there is a link to all Electronic Meetings available.

2. Where do I find face-to-face AI-Anon meetings?

Go to the AI-Anon Family Groups Australia website. Click on Meetings on the tool bar at the top. Face-to-face meetings are listed State by State.

3. Is my online/zoom meeting registered with the Australian General Service Office?

If your online meeting has originated due to COVID-19 conditions and is attached to a regular face-to-face meeting, then it is a registered group.

4. Can my group have two meetings?

At the moment there are a number of Hybrid groups, groups that have face-to-face and online concurrently. Groups can also have two separate meetings, a face-to-face and an online occurring at the same time or at different times.

5. When does a group need to register an online meeting?

The policy that all permanent online meetings must be registered with the World Service Office has changed.

As a result - if an online meeting which is not part of a registered group in Australia wants to be registered as an AI-Anon Family Group it can now contact the Australian General Service Office for a Registration Form.

If electronic meetings set up temporarily do not wish to register that is fine. There is no compulsion to register at this time.

Contact the Australian General Service Office if you have any questions about groups during COVID-19 times. Anyone is welcome to attend any AI-Anon meeting, just go along and say that you are a new member. Email: agso.contact@gmail.com
